

Today our speaker is a leadership expert who has successfully led schools in Australia and Hong Kong.

He is here to help us reinvigorate and refresh the culture in our schools through OPTIMAL Leadership.

Steve is the author of four books including, “First Semester Can Make or Break You”,

His Masters degree on Teacher Stress led him to create the Happy School program. Over 800 schools receive his weekly articles on improving staff well-being and engagement.

For the past five years he has been recognised by Educator magazine as one of the 50 MOST INFLUENTIAL educators in Australia.

Steve currently lives in Brisbane and works with school leadership teams and staff across Australia and New Zealand.

He is passionate about helping school leaders optimise their schools and get satisfaction from the most important job in the World.

Please welcome Steve Francis